

The Chas. Monson Co.

We Never Take a Back Step!

That means something; neither are we satisfied with standing still. There's a force constantly at work that tends to bring this store closer to those who buy dry goods. Perhaps your experience here, after trying other stores, will tell you what it is.

S-I-L-K-S, Silks.

Yes! Silks, American dainties such as we never before dreamed of—See window display and tell us if you are not proud of American manufacture.

DOLLAR and UNDER brings to you a big variety. DOLLAR and OVER is where we are strong.

Black Dress Goods.

NEVER was merchant more "good-and-ready" on Black Autumnals than we find ourselves now. Never was there such enthusiasm in Black Stuffs at the foreign fashion centers as now.

HUNDREDS of new black Dress Fabrics are here. Styles and designs never before shown anywhere.

Europe's vacation from war has turned her geniuses into designing exquisite things for dress.

Taken The Town

By storm, we might say, Foster, Paul & Co.'s famous "Street Glove," at $1.50 a pair—Hundred praise them—Not one has found a fault—Only found here.

Infants' Hosiery

Special assortment of Infants' Socks, three-quarter and full length—silk, wool and cotton Hosiery—black, white, red and tan—Mothers! Note this!

The Chas. Monson Co.

We are sole agents in New Haven for the sale of $4.50 per bbl.

It is the best all-around flour put in barrels. It makes good bread, good cake, good pie crust, etc. It saves the trouble of buying what are called bread flour and pastry flour. It is a splendid combination.

ARE YOU A TOBACCO SLAVE? Do you want to quit this practice? You ought to do it for the sake of your heart, your nerves, your lungs. Every chew, every smoke, hurts you. If you want to stop there will be a struggle and you will fail unless you have help. "GOOD-BYE" will do it easily, thoroughly. No experiment, no fuss, no injury. A sure, safe, speedy cure. Try it, it will not fail. M. Bristol & Sons, 84 Chapel Street, Agents for New Haven.

HYPERION.
Messrs. E. M. and J. Holland will present "A Social Highwayman" at the Hyperion to-night under the management of Mr. Richard Mansfield. There appeared in Lippincott's Magazine for July, a novelette which attracted the attention of Richard Mansfield's literary amanuensis, Miss Mary P. Stone. This young woman thought that the dramatic possibilities latent in this story would serve admirably as the vehicle for Mr. Mansfield's successful appearance at the Garrick, at a time when it was expected that he would open the regular dramatic season at his beautiful theater, himself; but the fates decreed otherwise. The great actor fell almost fatally ill of typhoid fever, and it will not be for a month or two, yet, that his reappearance upon the stage can be looked for. Meanwhile, the two Holland brothers have begun their starring career, under his management, and it was thought desirable to enlarge their repertoire of modern comedy with the play of more serious purpose. So the "Social Highwayman" was entrusted to their artistic interpretation and achieved an instant success, pronounced by the New York critics, for once unanimous, to be not only the greatest of the season, but also the most genuine in many years.

Sale of seats now open. Prices, $1.75 cents.
A remarkable society event occurs at the Hyperion, New Haven, to-morrow evening, when Miss Olga Netherole will present "Denise." A remarkable fact about Miss Netherole is that the never studies a part in her stage work. She doesn't know what it means to commit the exact words of one of her characters to memory. Her method is to read over the entire play for a week or two, and longer if necessary, until she becomes thoroughly identified with the character she is to portray, and the words seem to come to her intuitively. After a few rehearsals she is perfect in the part, and she claims that this manner of preparing oneself is the best possible one, as it renders the work devoid entirely of mechanical and conventional acting. Sale of seats now open.

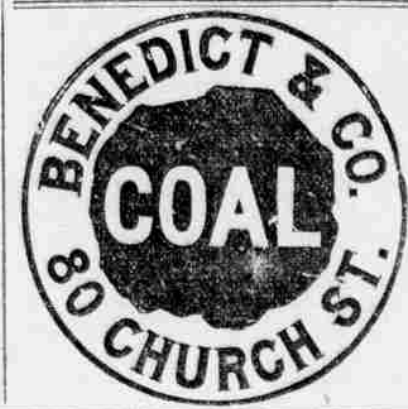

"Shenandoah," the second successful war drama of this season of American plays, comes to the Hyperion Friday and Saturday evening. It is a thrilling story of the war in the Shenandoah Valley. It is a pretty tale of how the south and north, through the medium of young and loving hearts, forgot all sectional prejudices and hatred and repeated the old, old story. Sale of seats opens Tuesday. Prices, $1.75 cents.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"Girl Wanted" is the latest specimen of farce-comedy of the new sort. It comes to the Grand Opera House to-night and Tuesday and Wednesday nights. It is a very lively story of the misadventures and shifts of a penniless youth who is trying to divert to his sweetheart a fortune that ought to come to her but threatens to go elsewhere. He distinguishes himself as several different people in succession. He masquerades as a Down-East countryman, a New York tough boy, a gutless German girl, a Hebrew, an Irishman, and a comic opera prima donna. The role of the youth who makes these disguises is played by Frank Bush, whose versatile comedy talent is well known. The piece was written by R. N. Stephens especially to give Mr. Bush such a part, at the request of Mr. Bush's managers, Davis and Keogh. Frank Bush's part in mimicry and impersonation is as great as his fund of natural humor. With him in "Girl Wanted" is a large company of well known and clever fun-makers and specialty performers. Matinees Tuesday, Wednesday. Prices, 10 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents.

"The Land of the Living," Frank Harvey's melodrama, is likely to win a great deal of popularity. The scenic effects are fine, and it may be said with truth W. Harvey has appeared with equal success to the eye and the ear. One of the most important scenes takes place in the diamond mines of South Africa. "The Land of the Living" comes to the Grand Opera house the last three days this week.

POLE'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.
What's this? Nilsson's grand aerial ballet at Pole's Wonderland theater! The great feature of the original production of "The Brownies" during its great New York run to be presented in New Haven for popular prices? That's just what is promised for this week at the Wonderland. It is in all respects the original aerial ballet, with the same beautiful ladies whom Mr. Nilsson brought from Paris with him, and all the paraphernalia invented by him and used in the original production of Palmer Cox's extravaganza. The New York Herald described this ballet at the time of its first production as "a dream of beauty and a marvel of stage mechanism." The ladies will undoubtedly appreciate this enterprise and be present in large numbers every afternoon to see the brilliant spectacle for which they are charged only ten cents in any part of the house. The accompanying bill is a remarkably strong one also, containing the names of some of the cleverest artists in the vaudeville profession.
